

FALL 2018

DIVERSITY SYMPOSIUM

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2018 || 10:00 AM - 3:30 PM || MORSE HALL

10:00

CIVIL DISCOURSE & PROTESTING

What are different forms of civil discourse and protesting that have been successful in history? How have different identities impacted the ways in which these protesters have been treated?

11:30

SEX, POLITICS, AND CULTURE

How do cultural understandings of sex influence laws and policies? This discussion will focus on different understandings of sexual misconduct across culture and how culture, media, and politics intersect.

12:45

LUNCH BY THEMED TABLE

Ladylike Behavior

What is considered "ladylike behavior" and is there a double standard? This discussion will focus on the scrutiny around gender expectations, particularly in regards to how they interact with racial stereotypes.

Educating the Youth

When is it too early to start tough discussions with children? From sex to LGBTQIA+ to racism, when and how should these topics be introduced to kids? This discussion will include comparisons between different cultural norms for education children.

Pink Tax

What is the price of being a female consumer? Learn more about how certain products are priced higher for women based on simple marketing strategies that contribute to widening gender price discrimination.

Implicit Bias and Healthcare

How does implicit bias impact various areas of healthcare? From medical treatment to access to services, biases can impact the lives of marginalized groups in numerous ways.

2:15

SNEETCHES

Have you ever wanted to share more about your experiences, but were hesitant to do so? Through this anonymous and confidential activity, learn more about yourself and our community.

Lunch will be Thai food!

RSVP here: <https://tinyurl.com/DiversitySymposiumFall2018>